

GREEN BRICK PARTNERS, INC.

Amended and Restated Audit Committee Charter

I. Purpose

The Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Green Brick Partners, Inc. (the “Company”) is appointed by the Board to:

- 1) Oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the financial statements of the Company;
- 2) Oversee the assessment of financial risk and financial risk management programs;
- 3) Evaluate the independence, qualifications, and performance of the independent auditors;
- 4) Engage the independent auditors;
- 5) Oversee the integrity and adequacy of internal controls and the quality and adequacy of disclosures to stockholders;
- 6) Oversee the performance of the Company’s internal audit function;
- 7) Monitor the Company’s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; and
- 8) Perform all other duties required under this Charter, assigned by the Board or required by regulation or law.

II. Membership and Procedures

- 1) The Committee shall be comprised of not fewer than three members of the Board appointed annually to serve by the Board upon recommendation of the independent members of the Board or the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Company (the “Nominating Committee”). Members shall meet the test of “independence,” within the meaning of the rules established from time to time under applicable law and by the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) and the rules promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). In addition, each Committee member must not have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company or any current subsidiary of the Company at any time during the past three years. No member of the Committee may simultaneously serve on the audit committee of more than two other public companies.
- 2) A Committee Chair (the “Chair”) will be designated by the Board upon recommendation of the independent members of the Board or the Nominating Committee. The Chair will normally determine the agenda, frequency (which shall, in any event, be not less than quarterly) and length of meetings. However, any member of the Committee may require a special meeting of the Committee to be convened if they believe it is required.

- 3) Committee members will have unlimited access to management and information required by the Committee. The Committee may ask members of management, employees, outside counsel, the independent auditors, internal auditors or others whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee, to attend any meetings and to provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request.
- 4) A majority of the total number of members of the Committee then in office shall constitute a quorum thereof. The Committee may act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members at a meeting or by unanimous written consent.
- 5) A member may be removed at any time, with or without cause, from the Committee only by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. Committee members may resign by giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board or the Corporate Secretary.
- 6) The Committee may designate one or more subcommittees, each consisting of one or more of its members. Subcommittees may exercise all the powers and authority of the Committee if such powers and authority are delegated to them. Subcommittees shall keep minutes of their meetings and report them to the Committee or the Board.
- 7) In accordance with Nasdaq and Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) rules, members shall have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices and be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, and at least one member shall have experience in finance or accounting or related financial management expertise and, if practical, be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the SEC.
- 8) As required by applicable laws, rules and regulations of the SEC, the Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditor for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services, for payment of compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee and for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
- 9) The Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of any matters within the Committee’s scope of responsibilities.
- 10) The Committee will evaluate its own performance in fulfilling its responsibilities established in this Charter no less than annually and report the results to the Board.

III. Authority and Responsibility

The Committee's key responsibilities include:

- 1) Oversight of the independent auditors;
- 2) Oversight of the internal audit function;
- 3) Authority to engage or terminate outside legal, accounting and other advisors as needed, and approve the terms of their engagement and fees; and
- 4) Oversight of compliance with financial disclosure requirements and laws and regulations relating to audits.

Oversight of Independent Auditors

The Committee shall:

- 1) Be solely responsible for oversight of the work of the independent auditors, as well as their appointment, retention, dismissal and compensation, for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company. The independent auditors will report directly to the Committee;
- 2) Review, at least annually, the qualifications, performance and independence of the auditors. The review will include a formal written statement from the independent auditors delineating all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company that could be considered to bear on the auditors' independence. In addition, the review shall ensure the rotation of partners in accordance with SEC rules and securities laws;
- 3) Approve in advance any audit or permissible non-audit engagement of the independent auditors (other than de minimus non-audit services as defined in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act which shall be approved prior to completion of the independent auditors' audit), in each case including fees;
- 4) Meet with the independent auditors prior to the annual audit to review the scope, planning and staffing of the proposed audit, including the responsibilities of and staffing by Company personnel who will assist in the audit;
- 5) Approve and recommend to the Board the hiring of any employees or former employees of the independent auditors who have within ten years participated in any capacity in the audit of the Company; and
- 6) Annually obtain and review a report from the independent auditors describing the firm's internal quality control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company, including the matters covered by Independence Standards Board Standard Number 1. The Committee shall review and discuss with the independent auditors their periodic written disclosures regarding independence and any relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent auditors and, if so determined by the Committee, take, or recommend that the Board take, appropriate action to satisfy itself as to the independence of the auditors.

Oversight of Internal Audit

The Committee shall:

- 1) Review the hiring, appointment and/or replacement of internal auditing personnel;
- 2) Review the activities of the internal auditing department and any significant reports to management as well as management's response;
- 3) Discuss with the independent auditors and management the responsibilities of the internal audit department including budget and staffing and any recommended changes in the planned scope of the department;
- 4) Review and reassess periodically the adequacy of the Internal Audit Charter based on discussions with the independent auditors and management and adopt any changes as necessary; and
- 5) Review with the Director of Internal Audit, or similar senior officer responsible for the internal audit function, any difficulties encountered by the internal audit function in the course of its audits, including any restrictions on the scope of its work or access to required information.

Oversight of Compliance and Reporting Issues

The Committee shall:

- 1) Prior to public dissemination, review with management and the independent auditors the annual audited and quarterly unaudited financial statements as well as disclosures under MD&A, including major issues regarding accounting, disclosure, auditing procedures, and adequacy of internal controls that could materially affect the financial statements;
- 2) Discuss with management, any internal auditors and the independent auditors significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including any significant changes in the selection or application of accounting principles, and major issues as to the adequacy of internal controls, including reviewing any management internal control report, any significant internal control deficiencies or material weaknesses, any fraud involving management or others significantly involved in the Company's internal controls, and any special steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies or weaknesses;

- 3) Review and discuss reports from the independent auditors on all critical accounting policies and practices to be used, all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management including the potential ramifications if such alternative treatments are adopted and the treatments preferred by the independent auditors;
- 4) Review any other material written communication between the independent auditors and management;
- 5) Prior to public dissemination, review and, if appropriate, discuss with management earnings press releases as well as any non-public information or earnings guidance provided to analysts or the rating agencies;
- 6) Discuss with management and the independent auditors the effect on the financial statements of significant regulatory and accounting initiatives as well as off-balance sheet structures, if any;
- 7) Discuss with management major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures, including risk assessment and risk management policies;
- 8) Review with the independent auditors and any internal auditors any audit problems and management's response, including any differences noted by the auditors on which the Company did not adjust the financial statements. The Committee will have the authority to resolve any disagreements between the auditors, any internal auditors and management regarding financial reporting;
- 9) Review and discuss the report of the Disclosure Controls Committee upon its establishment each quarter prior to the filing of the Form 10-Q or 10-K, as applicable;
- 10) Review any disclosures made to the Audit Committee by the CEO and CFO during their certification process for Forms 10-K and 10-Q regarding any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting or material weaknesses therein and any allegations of fraud or deficiencies in the disclosure procedures;
- 11) In connection with the annual audit and review by the independent auditors of the financial information included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, the Committee shall discuss with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, including Auditing Standard No. 16, and under the rules and regulations of the SEC and other applicable authorities (as such standards and rules and regulations may be established or amended from time to time);

- 12) Prepare and approve the report required in the annual proxy statement and review the matters described in such report;
- 13) Obtain quarterly assurances from the internal auditing staff and management that the system of internal controls is effective. Annually obtain a report from the independent auditors regarding management's assessment of the internal control procedures;
- 14) Obtain from the independent auditors assurance that no illegal acts or undisclosed related party transactions were discovered during their examination in regard to Section 10A(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;
- 15) Review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the adequacy of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") and the Company's procedures for ensuring proper distribution, education and compliance with the Code. The Committee shall also assist the Board in reviewing and, when appropriate, granting any requests by a director or executive officer for a waiver from compliance with such Code;
- 16) Review policies and procedures that the Company has implemented regarding compliance with applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations and with the Code;
- 17) Review and approve related party transactions and review disclosures for compliance with the securities laws relating to related party transactions;
- 18) Establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;
- 19) Discuss with management and the independent auditors any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements and/or accounting policies;
- 20) At least annually, review any legal issues with the General Counsel (or outside counsel if there is no General Counsel) that may have a material impact on financial statements or compliance policies as well as any material reports or inquiries received from regulators or governmental agencies;
- 21) Meet periodically in separate sessions with each of: (a) the individual in charge of the internal audit function (if any); (b) the independent auditors; and (c) management; and
- 22) Report regularly to the Board any issues that arise regarding the integrity of the financial statements, compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the performance and independence of the independent auditors or the performance of the internal audit function.

IV. Other

- 1) The Committee shall:
 - (a) Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval; and
 - (b) Keep minutes of each meeting and provide regular reports to the Board, promptly informing the Board of any material issues or concerns.
- 2) The Committee relies on:
 - (a) management for the preparation and accuracy of the Company's financial statements;
 - (b) both management and the Company's internal audit department for establishing effective internal controls and procedures to ensure the Company's compliance with accounting standards, financial reporting procedures and applicable laws and regulations; and
 - (c) the Company's independent auditors for an unbiased, diligent audit or review, as applicable, of the Company's financial statements and the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls.

The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company and are not responsible for conducting the audit or performing other accounting procedures.

Adopted by the Audit Committee on November 4, 2019 and approved by the Board of Directors on November 4, 2019
